

2018 WW Celebration Arabian & HA/AA Classes

Working Western Celebration I, September 7 & 9, 2018

AHA Region X & Region XI Championship Classes, September 9, 2018

This sheet is an informational guide to classes offered at the 2018 Working Western Celebration that are specific to Arabian & Half-Arabian horses. The WW Celebration is a series of Breed Association shows and specific discipline events held at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison, Wisconsin, September 7th to the 16th. The classes denoted with AHA stand for Arabian Horse Association and are approved through that breed organization. Classes with ARAB are for purebred Arabian horses and are not approved by AHA but a copy of horse's registration papers must be on file with the Show Office. Classes with HA/AA are for Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian horses and are not approved by AHA but a copy of horse's registration papers must be on file with Show Office. WW Celebration Championships are designed to be show specific and are not approved by any breed governing body. WW Celebration Show Committee decisions are final. There are also National Reined Cow Horse Association (NRCHA), American Ranch Horse Association (ARHA), and National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) approved events at the WW Celebration, which follow the rules established by those groups. Only Arabian & Half-Arabian classes are included on this sheet. Full schedule and entry forms will be posted to website: www.workingwesterncelebration.com. Questions may be directed to Sandy Woerle at woerle79@aim.com or 715.558.5080.
