2. To qualify for the Bob's Custom Saddles Supreme Versatility Championship the horse & rider combination must enter all three divisions: Reining, Ranch Riding, and Halter/In-Hand/Conformation.
3. Points will be awarded in each of the individual classes based upon the NRHA payback schedule A, which is based on number of entries.

7. Where indicated, classes follow the rules of their designated breed association unless it is an OPEN class. Breed Association classes require a copy of Registration Certificate and Membership card.
8. Where indicated, Ranch Riding classes follow the rules of their designated breed association unless OPEN. Exhibitors may enter either a breed association class or an all-breed, open class. Please check list of eligible classes in the full schedule for all options.
9. Riders may show multiple horses providing each horse has completed properly an entry form with designated classes. Forms available at www.workingwesterncelebration.com and in Show Office during show hours.

If the tie still exists then (b) Actual score from the call judge in Ranch Riding will be used. If a winner cannot be determined, then co-champions will be named with a coin-flip to determine prize winner.
11. Horse & Rider combination with highest total points from the three divisions earns title of "Champion" and will be awarded a Bob's Custom Saddle donated by Bob's Custom Saddles. Additional awards will be provided to the Top 10 highest point earners.
