

The North Central Working Western Horse Celebration I Versatility Ranch Horse Shows

September 7- 9, 2018

The New Holland Pavilions at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison, WI

The Working Western Celebration offers several opportunities for Ranch Horse competition regardless of breed. Exhibitors have the opportunity to ride within their breed divisions and may cross-enter to show in other classes concurrently where eligible. Declarations of concurrent entries must be made at time of entry in the Show Office. Patterns are available in the Show Office.

AQHA VERSATILITY RANCH HORSE

The title of All-Around Versatility Ranch Horse will be named in the Open, Amateur, and Youth Divisions. Each division is calculated independently for the number of horses competing in that Division. To be eligible for points in the All-Around Versatility Ranch Horse title, one horse-one rider must enter and show in a minimum of three categories: one of these categories must be a cattle class and the horse must also show in the conformation. One additional category must be entered and shown, although both remaining categories will count for points toward over-all title. In each class the entire class will be scored and placed. Ribbons for first to sixth in each class with Show "moola" to blue ribbon. Exhibitors competing for the All-Around title shall have their class placings entered into the all-around tabulation. Any ties will be broken using the highest score in the Ranch Cutting class followed by Ranch Reining, Ranch Trail and Ranch Riding. For complete rules and point tabulation method see AQHA Official Handbook, Section SHW550, Versatility Ranch Horse Division. Each Champion wins Bronze trophy & Tri-color championship ribbon. Each Reserve Champion wins Plaque & Tri-color championship ribbon. The balance of Top 5 in each Division earns championship ribbon & Top 5 Award.

ALL-AROUND RANCH HORSE

For the Working Western Celebration show, "RANCH" denotes a grouping of classes used to determine the All-Around Ranch Horse Champion, Reserve Champion and 8 Finalists. Open to any horse/rider combination regardless of breed or association. The title of All-Around Ranch Horse Champion will be named in Open, Amateur and Youth Divisions. In each class, all exhibitors will be scored and placed. Ribbons for 1st to 6th in each class with "moola" to blue ribbon. Those exhibitors competing for All-Around Ranch Horse will have points entered into the all-around tabulation. Amateur is determined by those individuals who do not make their living from the training, sale or promotion of equines. In RANCH classes an Amateur exhibitor does not need to own the horse. The Northern Stock Horse Organization method of high point tabulation will be used. Every contestant will receive at least one point for participating in the class. Points are awarded depending upon number of entries. For example, if 30 entries in a class, first will receive 30 points, second place 29 points and so on until sixth receives 25 points. Horses in 7th to 30th place receive one point. In a class of four horses, first place receives four points; second three points; third two points and fourth one point. Ties are broken by using highest score in Ranch Cutting, followed by Ranch Riding, Ranch Reining and Ranch Trail. Each Champion wins Bronze trophy with tri-colored ribbon; Reserve Champion earns Plaque & tri-colored ribbon, and balance of Top 10 wins championship finalists ribbon with Top 10 Award.

APPALOOSA RANCH HORSE

The title of Champion Appaloosa Ranch Horse and Reserve Champion Appaloosa Ranch Horse will be named from the two highest scoring horse & rider combinations competing in the ApHC Ranch Horse Division. To be eligible for points in the Appaloosa Ranch Horse Championship, one horse-one rider must enter and show in a minimum of three categories: one of these categories must be conformation. Although three categories must be entered and shown to be eligible, both remaining categories will count for points toward over-all title. In each class the entire class will be scored and placed by each judge for ApHC points; however, the combined circuit points placings for each class will be used for tabulation of over-all championship award. Any ties will be broken using the highest combined score in the Ranch Reining class, followed by Ranch Trail and Ranch Riding. Championship trophy & tri-colored ribbon to winner. Reserve will receive plaque & tri-colored ribbon.

MORGAN RANCH VERSATILITY

For purposes of this event MRV denotes Morgan Ranch Versatility as a grouping of classes used to determine the Champion & Reserve Champion winners in the Morgan Ranch Versatility. To be eligible, horses must be registered with the American Morgan Horse Association and a copy of the papers must be on file with the show office. Morgan Ranch Horse classes follow the guidelines as established by AQHA VRH with the following exceptions: 1. There is no membership requirement to enter the classes; 2. Any age horse 3 or over may be shown 2-handed with snaffle/hackamore or 1-handed with bridle; 3. Not to be penalized for trimming ears; 4. Not to be penalized for silver on tack; 5. Breast collar and/or back cinch not required; and, 6. Ranch Conformation open to ages 2 years & over. Exhibitors may enter one or any number of classes. Each class will be judged and placed on its own merits. However, to be eligible for Champion or Reserve Champion Morgan Versatility title a horse-rider combination must enter at least three of the five Ranch Versatility classes. One of the classes must be Ranch Conformation. Although three classes must be entered and shown to be eligible, both remaining classes will count for points toward over-all title. In each class the entire class will be scored and placed. Ribbons 1st to 6th with show "moola" to blue ribbon. The Northern Stock Horse Organization point system will be utilized in the calculation of winners. Every contestant will receive at least one point for participating in the class. The judge is required to place the top six horses. Points are awarded depending upon placing and total number of entries in a given class. Ties will be broken by awarding the entry that placed higher in the MRV Ranch Cutting. If tie still exists then move to MRV Ranch Reining & MRV Ranch Riding. If no way to break the tie, then co-champions are named with toss of coin will determine who keeps prizes. Championship bronze trophy & tri-colored ribbon to winner. Reserve will receive plaque & tri-colored ribbon.

ARABIAN RANCH HORSE

For the Working Western Celebration show, "ARAB" denotes a grouping of classes used to determine the purebred Arabian Ranch Horse Champion & Reserve Champion. To be eligible, horses must be registered with either the Arabian Horse Association or the Canadian Arabian Horse Registry. A copy of each horse's registration papers must be on file with the Show Office. Although "ARAB" designated classes are not sanctioned by AHA, the AHA Handbook will be used as guideline for bit rules and point tabulations with general class procedures following established practices of AQHA VRH. Points are awarded on a one-horse/one-rider basis. A Champion & Reserve Champion Arabian Ranch Horse will be named from placings in Ranch Riding, Ranch Trail, Ranch Horse Pleasure, Ranch Reining, and Performance Horse Halter. Ranch Riding and Performance Horse Halter are AHA-approved classes. Exhibitors may enter one or any number of classes; however, to be eligible for the over-all Ranch Horse title, the horse must have entered and shown in at least three of the five divisions. Championship bronze & tri-colored ribbon to winner. Reserve will receive plaque & tri-colored ribbon.
